Dear Parents/Carers,

Thank you to those parents who have attended the Pupil/Parent Consultations this week. I hope that you have been provided with the information about how your child/ren are getting on in school and what you can do to further support them. Please note that moving forward if you miss your child/ren allocated time slot then you will not be seen on that evening. An alternative appointment will need to be arranged.

We are hosting a workshop for parents, based around the dangers of knife crime on Friday 28th February. More detail can be found inside the newsletter. I do hope that many of you will be able to join us as this is such a worrying issue for our young people today. Please feel free to pop in and ask any questions you may have about the workshop.

I hope that you all have a lovely half-term and that the weather is kind to us. Looking forward to welcoming the children back to school on Monday 24th February.

Headteacher

Minus Violence Plus Peace

Hopefully you have all received the letter below about a workshop that we will be holding in school after the half-term break.

Dear Parents,

A number of you have expressed worries and concerns to us about events that have reported in the local area related to gang violence and the material that children are able to access on the internet.

Therefore, we are pleased to announce that on Friday 28th February between 9:30 – 11:30am we have been provided with the opportunity to host a free 'Minus Violence + Peace' parental workshop. The workshop is run for parents and carers with children of any ages. More information on the workshop is as follows:

Peacemakers and Ray Douglas, from Minus Violence, have joined forces to offer a powerful parenting workshop for schools and parent's groups. We invite parents and carers into school for sessions on school aged violence in order to empower them with the knowledge pertaining to the rise in dominant youth violence culture. We talk, teach, and share experiences so parents feel less isolated with the issues they may be tackling. We also make sure we provide the tools to enable parents and carers to safeguard their children both online and at home. The topics discussed are:-

- Knife Crime

- County Lines

- The Effects of Violent Music, Films and Video Games

- Child Violence Exploitation

- Signposting

Refreshments and a crèche facility will be available during the session which is expected to last between 1.5 and 2 hours.

If you would be interested in attending this workshop would you please contact the office and let us know.

I really hope that many of you will be able to join us for this important workshop.
